Dear friends,

Blessed Easter!

As we shout, He is Risen! He is Risen indeed! Alleluia! The risen Christ lives and reigns in our lives. Easter is a time of Joy for those redeemed from sin, death and the devil. I pray this joy continues for you and yours.

So, how do we keep the Easter spirit in a world broken in sin? It can be hard to remain focused and joyful in a world with much to wrestle with and complain about. The old line - one step forward, two steps back - can seem all too familiar for you and me, especially as it pertains to the cross and our life and walk following Jesus.

We stumble as sinners do, even sinners saved by grace. I have no easy answers for you, except that which you've heard before. Be in the word. To keep Easter alive, you need to keep Easter nearby. It needs to be on your heart and on your mind. It needs to be something read and something said. It needs to be heard and something shared and for it to be a continued blessing you need to continue to celebrate with us hear the Easter good news.

As St. Peter encourages us:

² Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation— ³ if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

The Lord continues to call us by the word, and the word needs to be read, heard and pondered. Come and hear and by the Holy Spirit, let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, keeping the Easter blessing a part of your life now and always!

God bless,
Pastor Tkac
