September

Dear Friends in Christ,

September already?

Wow, it has been a quick summer! Back to school and back to our regular schedule. So, what does that look like. For me it's not a whole lot different.

Teach, visit, preach and prepare for what comes at times unexpectedly.

If all goes well, I hope your September isn't too hectic. But, life at times doesn't cooperate. So where is peace and where can you find rest from these difficult days?

Might I suggest Jesus.

He calls us to cast our cares on him. 1 Peter 5:7

To find peace in him. Phil 4:7

And to rest in him. Matt. 11:28

The world will be where we struggle and it will not give us the eternal joy that we can have in Christ.

I've had the joy and struggle of visiting many over the summer. Only is this made possible and endurable by Jesus and the continued working of the Holy Spirit who does all of the heavy lifting. May God give you peace!

Sunday: If you would like to try something new, we have Adult Bible Study before service at 9:30- 10:10 am in the fellowship hall. 40 minutes that will sharpen your understanding of God's word.
